STUDY ABROAD PROGRAM IN BRAZIL

Student Agreement

U.S.-Brazil Consortium for Sustainable Drinking Water Studies

As a participant in the exchange program under the FIPSE-CAPES U.S. Consortium for Sustainable Drinking Water Studies project, I understand that I will:

- Pay the University of Mississippi Study Abroad fee ($1000).
- Pay University of Mississippi tuition for one semester.
- Pay for the University of Mississippi-required supplemental health insurance ($250) per semester.
- Pay for the Pre-term Portuguese as a Second Language Intensive Course at PUC-Rio.
- Pay other supplemental fees at the host university.
- Pay for roundtrip airfare, lodging, food, books, and other incidental costs while in Brazil.

In return, I understand that I will:

- Not pay for credit courses at the host university.
- Receive a one-time $1000 language training stipend (to offset costs associated with the pre-term language training in Brazil).
- Receive a $4000 student mobility stipend.

Should I choose to terminate my participation in the program prior to my completion of the semester at my host university, I will repay:

- The $1000 language training stipend.
- The $4000 student mobility stipend.

The repayment shall be completed no later than 14 calendar days after returning to the U.S.
